Brief Description:

Dharmani Mariyamma w/o chinapolayya age 55 years old, she is a leprosy affected women, her husband also having leprosy, they both took treatment for the disease and cured, due to the affect of disease both wife and husband lose the fingers and toes, her husband is unable to do any work, so they both are going for begging. Mariyamma goes some times for labor work and sometimes she goes with her husband for begging. They are blessed with one daughter, they give up for marriage. They both are living together and help to each other.

These people are neglected and cornered, no official or a political leader won't bother these people. They are living in a rainy roof house which was constructed by the government; they have covered the roof with a plastic sheet. This rainy season is very trouble one and both are panic when it rains, last month the leprosy colony people going together to protest a dharna about their housing issues to represent the district collector, they got assurance from the district collector to repairs their houses. They also were looking for some philanthropic help to improve their conditions and repair of their house.

In this juncture we have provided 10 kgs of Rice, 1 kg Dal, 1 liter Cooking Oil, 1 kg Provisions, 1 Saree and 1 Blanket from your kind donation to Dharmani Mariyamma and chinapolayya on 23.08.2011.
