Brief Description

DONATIONS RECEIVED THROUGH GIVEINDIA IS USED ONLY FOR POOR BENEFICIARIES

14 years old is belongs to very backward area of Begusarai district, Bihar. He was related to simple middle class family and parents were very caring and loving towards the child. Father was a rajmistri and mother is a house wife. He was contacted at Mughalsarai Railway station by Sathi staff when he was alone seeing very confused. He was convinced and brought to the shelter for care and protection.

During interaction at shelter he sheared that he is run away from the home without informing parents to enjoy with his friends. He also revealed that he came here to meet his elder brother who is working in a factory near Ramnagar without having his correct address. During the Counseling he was motivated to go home and he showed interest to go back.

The child address was traced with the help of Begusarai Police and could contact with his uncle and brother. They both came to shelter to receive the child. During conservation with them, they told that they were worried for and his behavior. They both were counseled and told that they should take more care towards the child. They also agreed to do the same and Raju was happily homeplaced. They thanked SATHI for reuniting with the child.

Shelter Address: SATHI - SNEH GRAH C/o Shri Ram Awadh Mishra, Next to New Sunrise School Gaytri, Temple Road, Parahupur Mughal Sarai, Dist. Chandauli, Uttar Pradesh
