Brief Description:

DONATIONS RECEIVED THROUGH GIVEINDIA ARE USED ONLY FOR POOR BENEFICIARIES.

belongs to a poor Scheduled Tribe Yanadi family. She is the younger daughter to her parents. She has a disabled sister, polio victim. Their major occupation is agricultural labour work, which is seasonal and does not provide employment for an entire year. They held no assets other than a little house built long ago with the financial backing of Government grant.

Currently, they are contributing a life with adversity, since the income which they get from agricultural labour works is measured and does not bear even to satisfy their basic demands. It becomes impacted on their children's education and future.

In these conditions, CERDS staff has given counselling to her parents and convinced them to send their kids to school. After that, it was extended the sponsor support of humanitarian to this child in kind of two pairs of uniforms, casual wears and a school bag. These benefits were given her on 25 08.2015.

Now, is studying 7th class in local ZPH school. By having basic educational supplies, she got confidence and is showing interest to attend classes regularly and concentrating on her subjects.

This sponsor support helps to this vulnerable child not to turn as child labourer and also helps to poor parent, who is living in depressed condition, to send their child to school with basic educational supplies. Since having good cloths and other basic educational supplies, the child has increasingly gained confidence and can able to mingle socially with other children in the school. It also helped her lot to concentrate on her studies and attend school with proper minimum educational requirements.
