Child's background:

currently lives in the Rainbow House. She has been with us since 5th June 2008. was born and brought up in as her family originates from the State.

has two sisters and one brother; all of them are in our care. and her siblings were born and brought up in poverty. A family of four children to look after was a huge challenge for her parents as they were facing a lot of financial problems. Her parents are farmers and cultivate the field for a living in their native village. However, many times due to scarcity of rains, they incurred a lot of losses. The parents work as daily wageworkers and also do any kind of work depending on the availability of jobs. Since they did not have a permanent source of income they found it difficult to make ends meet and to provide for the needs of the children. In order to avoid further suffering mother brought her and her elder sister to us. and her sister were quickly admitted into one of our Homes and welcomed into a loving environment which offered them comfort, companionship, nourishing food, education and the possibility of a secure future.

feels safe and happy. She is an intelligent and sensitive child who enjoys playing different games with her new friends in Kathleen House. is a sweet and a fun-loving child who is enjoying her surrounds. She has been admitted in our Shanti Niketan (Non Formal School). enjoys playing, dancing and singing with her friends during leisure time. She is a sweet child with a humble attitude that pleases everyone. She needs continuous love and care. This can be achieved through sponsorship and guidance which will help her achieve her goals to grow and develop as a normal child.
