The Shree Krishna Hospital, set up in 1981 under the aegis of the Charutar Arogya Mandal, is perhaps one of the most unique experiment in delivering health care to the community in a rural area. Created with the vision of late Shri HM Patel, the former Union Minister for Finance and Home, the hospital, with a capacity to house 550 patients, has over the last 33 years or so provided the people in Anand and Kheda district, persons mainly from lower strata of the society, access to state-of-the-art medical facilities and skilled clinicians at very nominal rates. In fact, many of the services are being provided at rates which are lower than even their direct costs. The Hospital has an ICU, an ICCU, Operation Theatres for major and minor operations and OPD and IPD services for all major faculties of Medicine.
